

2020 MACDONALD BLAUFRÄNKISCH Old Mission Peninsula

All three of our single vineyard Blaufränkisch bottlings from 2020 come from the Old Mission Peninsula. Due to the peninsula's microclimates, as well as factors such as the age of the vineyard, growing techniques, and the separate French oak barrels in which the wine was aged, each wine is as unique as the sonic waveform on its label.

The wines from these vineyards were destined for a Reserve Blaufränkisch, but we chose instead to bottle each separately in order to celebrate their individuality.

The MacDonald Vineyard has developed a distinct signature since its establishment in 2002. The sonic waveform on the label reflects how the flavors and textures rise with a burst of acidity and then resolve slowly into a focused finish. The dissonance and resolution of the waveform reflect the evolution of the wine's texture and fruit as it crosses the palate.
