2025 Lighthouse Pinot Grigio

Old Mission Peninsula

Pinot Grigio is a nod to the Italian expression of the Gris grape. With this style of wine we are looking for primary fruit characteristics to balance a firm and present acidity.

Pinot Gris ripens easily on Old Mission Peninsula, and we let it hang on the vine deep into the season, which allows us to make wines with depth and complexity. Within the Gris skins sit a host of aromatic compounds. We hold the crushed grapes for 10-12 hours with their skins to coax out the aromatic virtues of this shy grape. The fermentation is cool and steady which helps retain the natural flavors born in the vineyard. A brief aging in stainless steel and quick bottling lock in these attributes.

The label is a special edition from local artist Carol Lewin, and chosen at our Lighthouse Label Showcase. A portion of the proceeds from each bottle benefit the mission and preservation of the historic Mission Point Lighthouse.
